

Application Building Atria providing natural light deep into the occupied space

West George Street, Glasgow

Architect: Hugh Martin Partnership

Contractor: HBG Construction

Providing natural light into the reception area and floor space of a 6 storey building has been achieved with the fire resistant glazed system Fendor FineLine.

Fire resistance of 30 minutes; barrier loads and building movement were all accommodated in the 50mm face width glazed façade solution.